National CCW Convention

Lucy Kippley gave a short report on her recent trip to the National CCW Convention in Chicago. She reported it as an inspiring, exciting event.

There were special Eucharist liturgies.

With others she was able to preview a movie film that has not been released yet. It is called "Brothers Keeper". She said it is excellent and recommends seeing it when it comes out.

There was a lot of information on the Campaign for Human Dignity.

The Death Penalty was another subject. The speaker was a sister that worked with a man on death row.

A priest that did a lot with street people spoke with inspiring stories.

Cross International Organization, which especially serves destitute women presented information.

It was suggested that she give more information at a future meeting.

We may have a CCW meeting in January (January 8, 2012) if there are things to work on. As of now the next meeting will be February, 5, 2012.
