3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 21, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Greetings of peace and joy to you all!

As you know, our three parishes of Divine Mercy, St. Norbert, and Holy Cross are in the process of forming a new parish as part of the Diocese of Madison's Into the Deep plan. This is an exciting and challenging time for us, as we seek to become one family of faith, united in our mission to proclaim the Gospel and serve the Lord.

One of the important steps in this process is to choose a name for our new parish. The Pastorate 8 transition team, composed of representatives from each parish, has recently met to discuss this matter. We thank everyone who submitted suggestions for the name. We had over 30 names to consider, reflecting the rich diversity and history of our pastorate.

The team was able to narrow the list to 7 names based on several key criteria, such as historical significance, local relevance, alignment with our faith and mission, and potential for long-term appeal. The list of names are:

- Saints Joachim and Anne Parish: The parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the grandparents of Jesus. They are the patrons of grandparents, married couples, and families. They remind us of our call to be faithful and fruitful disciples of Christ and to pass on the faith to the next generations.

Saints Joachim and Anne are models of holy parenthood, who nurtured their daughter Mary in the love of God. They taught her the Scriptures, the traditions, and the prayers of their ancestors. They also instilled in her the virtues of faith, hope, and charity, which prepared her to say yes to God's will at the Annunciation.

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION THIS SUNDAY, JANUARY 21

We hope you will join Fr. Pedro and other parishioners this Sunday after the 9:30 a.m. Mass in St. Mary's Hall for Family Faith Formation. Bring your children and grandchildren as well as we will have Br. Francis on DVD for the little ones. Parents and adults can enjoy a cup of coffee and some words of wisdom with Fr. Pedro. All are welcome!

WINTER WEATHER MASS CANCELLATIONS

It is time to consider the possibility of Mass cancellations due to foul weather. If Mass will be cancelled, we will contact those of you who have internet access via email and ask that you pass the information on to your neighbors and those parishioners that may not have internet. If your internet address has changed or if we do not have your email address, please place it in the collection basket and label it "Mass cancellation email address". If you do not have internet and would like to be called when Mass is cancelled, please call Mardell Krejchik at 608-742-3364 to be placed on a calling list. Also, please be aware of our senior members and offer to help them enter the church safely whenever the opportunity arises. May God bless you all as we care for and assist one another.

MASS INTENTIONS AVAILABLE APRIL 2024 AND BEYOND

Because of your generosity, we have 6 Masses available in April and many in the months beyond. If you have deceased loved ones or a special intention please consider offering a Mass for them. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the most efficacious prayer that we can offer for our living and deceased loved ones since it is the Holy Sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross. To reserve a Mass in April and beyond at St. Mary's or Durward's Glen, please contact Mardell Krejchik, at 608-742-3364 or calcab89@yahoo.com or simply put your request in the collection basket at the next Mass. Please include your telephone number in case there are questions. Thank you so much for your continued support by offering Mass intentions. God Bless.

BAPTISM

Little Clayton Doyle Stephens will be baptized this weekend. Congratulations to the proud parents, Kyle and Allison (Latham) Stephens, and a warm St. Norbert's welcome to Clayton Doyle.

MAY ETERNAL REST GRANT UNTO HIM

We pray especially for the repose of the soul of Wally Endres. May his soul and the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen. All rosaries before this weekend's Masses will be offered for the soul of Wally.

FELLOWSHIP

All are invited to join Fr. James and the Parish Council for some Fellowship in the Church Hall on Sunday, January 28 after the 8:00am Mass.

MEALS ON WHEELS

St. Norbert's is responsible for delivering Meals on Wheels the weeks of January 29 - February 2 and February 5 - 9. We are in need of a runner on Tuesday, January 30 and a driver and a runner on Thursday, February 8. A sign up sheet is available on the register by the main entrance. Please sign up today!

SERVER PRACTICE

Fr. James invites all the servers in the Pastorate to a Server Meeting/Practice on Sunday, January 28. The meeting will start at 6:00pm, in the Church Hall, with a dinner that will be provided, followed by server practice from 6:20 - 7:00pm. See you there!

CALLING ALL KNITTERS!

The Women's Care Center has run out of newborn baby booties, and have reached out to local organizations for help. The ladies from the St. Norbert's CCW have stepped up to help. We posted their request on our Facebook page and as a result we are now partnered with Flaxen Fleece in Sauk City to make and collect baby booties. Flaxen Fleece is donating materials and have volunteered to collect the completed booties. We also have patterns available on the back register at St. Norbert's, or you can contact Juanita Wipperfurth, or ask for a pattern on the St. Norbert's CCW Facebook page. We will also have a basket available for completed booties at St. Norbert's next to the patterns. All booties are due by January 31.

BULLETIN INFORMATION OR ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bulletin information or information is due at 5:00pm on Mondays to Juanita.

GO MAKE DISCIPLES TIP OF THE MONTH

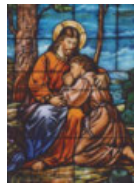

Focus on the Holy Name of Jesus: The month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus, which is celebrated on January 3. "In the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those that are in heaven, on earth and under the earth" (Phil 2:10). Christ's name is chosen in heaven, and the Angel Gabriel announces it when he informs the Blessed Virgin of the incarnation: "Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb and shalt bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus". It is a name that has marvelous implications, for it means "Savior." The very name bespeaks the magnitude of His mission, His infinite love, a love that will cause Him to offer Himself up for us. In January take those 15 minutes daily of prayer and focus on Jesus and how he gives us his love and what he coming into our world has given to all. Pray for his love and focus on the a New Year of gratitude and kindness and being the best Catholic you can be.

MASS INTENTIONS

If you would like to request a Mass, please place your request in the collection basket, labeled "Mass intentions" with your PRINTED request; phone number, email address or mailing address; and a $10 stipend payable to St. Norbert. Or you may mail your request to the Parish attention Mass request. Or feel free to contact Juanita via email or by phone. You may also order online at <https://pastorate8.org/mass-intentions>

Pray FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE UNBORN

Heavenly Father, in Your love for us, protect against the wickedness of the devil, those helpless little ones to whom You have given the gift of life.

Touch with pity the hearts of those women pregnant in our world today who are not thinking of motherhood.

Help them to see that the child they carry is made in Your image - as well as theirs - made for eternal life.

Dispel their fear and selfishness and give them true womanly hearts to love their babies and give them birth and all the needed care that a mother can give.

Saints Joachim and Anne show us the need to have families with holy parents, who may inspire their children to live a holy life. They remind us that the family is the domestic church, where the parents are the first teachers of the faith. They also encourage us to pray for our children and grandchildren, and to entrust them to God's providence.

- St. Thomas More Parish: The 16th-century English lawyer, statesman, and martyr. He is the patron of lawyers, politicians, and public servants. He inspires us to be courageous and faithful witnesses of the truth, even at the cost of our lives.

He was a devout Catholic who refused to accept King Henry VIII's claim to be the supreme head of the Church of England, and to approve his divorce from Catherine of Aragon. He was imprisoned, tried, and executed for his loyalty to the Pope and the Catholic Church. St. Thomas More exemplifies our call to defend our Faith in the public arena, especially when it does not conform to the current fads and trends. He challenges us to be faithful to our conscience and to the teachings of the Church, even when they are unpopular or persecuted.

- Our Lady of Lourdes Parish: The title of the Blessed Virgin Mary under which she appeared to St. Bernadette Soubirous in France in 1858. She is the patroness of the sick, the poor, and those in need of conversion. She invites us to pray, do penance, and trust in her maternal intercession. Our Lady of Lourdes is also connected to the dogma of the Immaculate Conception, which was proclaimed by Pope Pius IX in 1854, four years before the apparitions. When Bernadette asked the Lady her name, she replied: "I am the Immaculate Conception." This confirmed the truth of the dogma and revealed Mary's unique privilege of being preserved from original sin from the moment of her conception.

- Holy Innocents Parish: The children who were killed by King Herod in his attempt to destroy the newborn King of the Jews, Jesus Christ. They are the patrons of children, especially those who are unborn, abused, or neglected. They challenge us to defend the dignity and sanctity of every human life, from conception to natural death. Their name also expresses the solidarity of our pastorate with the pro-life movement, which is very active and vibrant in our area.

- Saint Isaac Jogues and the Black Robes Parish:

The 17th-century French Jesuit missionaries and martyrs who evangelized the native peoples of North America.

The name "the black robes" comes from the nickname given to the Jesuit missionaries by the Native Americans, who called them that because of their black cassocks, which are long garments worn by Catholic priests. The Jesuits were a religious order that came to North America in the 17th century to convert the natives to Christianity, often facing danger and martyrdom. Some of the most famous "black robes" were Saint Isaac Jogues and his companions, who evangelized the Huron and Iroquois tribes.

They are the patrons of missionaries, catechists, and educators. They encourage us to share the Gospel with zeal, compassion, and respect for the culture and dignity of others. Their name also acknowledges the presence and contribution of the Native American community in our pastorate, especially the Ho-Chunk Nation, whose ancestral lands we inhabit.

- Our Lady of Angels Parish: The title of the Blessed Virgin Mary under which she is venerated in the Basilica of St. Francis of Assisi in Italy. She is the patroness of the Franciscan order and of peace. She teaches us to follow the example of St. Francis, who embraced poverty, simplicity, and joy in serving God and his creation.

- Mary, Mother of Mercy Parish: The title of the Blessed Virgin Mary that expresses her role as the mother of Jesus Christ, who is the face of the Father's mercy. She shows us the way to obtain and extend mercy to others, especially the most vulnerable and marginalized. Her name also captures the spirit and vision of our pastorate, which is to be a place of mercy and healing for all who come to us. Her name also has a connection to Divine Mercy Sunday, the devotion that was revealed to St. Faustina Kowalska by Jesus, who asked for a special feast day to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Divine Mercy Parish was one of the first parishes in the Diocese of Madison to celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday in a special way, with a solemn Mass, a procession, and a veneration of the Divine Mercy image. Our pastorate has a culture of mercy, which is manifested in the frequent availability of the sacrament of reconciliation, or confession, in our parishes. We offer more confessions than any other parishes in the Diocese, at various times and locations throughout the week. We believe that confession is a place of victory, where we encounter God's mercy and forgiveness.

We ask you to pray and reflect on these names and how they connect with our pastorate and the three parishes that make it up. I encourage you to participate in the survey I sent via Flocknote so we can gather your feedback and preference. If you rather complete the survey on paper and you haven't completed the one on Flocknote, fill out and cut out the survey below and deposit it in the collection basket.

We thank you for your participation and cooperation in this important endeavor. We entrust our pastorate and our new parish to the guidance and protection of the Holy Spirit and the intercession of our patron saints. May God bless you and keep you always in his love!
Fr. Miguel

We would like to hear your opinion on the 7 names that we have selected for our new parish. Please rank them according to your preference, from 1 to 7, where 1 is the most preferred and 7 is the least preferred. To rank the names, please write the corresponding number next to each name in the list below. For example, if your most preferred name is Our Lady of Lourdes, you would write 1 next to it. If your second most preferred name is St. Thomas More, you would write 2 next to it, and so on. Please use only whole numbers and do not repeat any number. Here is the list of names:

- ___ Saints Joachim and Ann Parish
- ___ St. Thomas More Parish
- ___ Our Lady of Lourdes Parish
- ___ Holy Innocents Parish
- ___ Saint Isaac Jogues and the Black Robes Parish
- ___ Our Lady of Angels Parish
- ___ Mary, Mother of Mercy Parish

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

The people of Nineveh (the capital city of the Assyrian Empire and historic enemy of Israel) repented of their sins when they heard Jonah’s warning of God’s impending destruction of their city. What motivates you to repent?

Second Reading

Paul encouraged the believers in Corinth to live with a sense of urgency and in a radically different way than before coming to faith in Jesus. In what way are you living counter-culturally as a person of faith?

Gospel Reading

This Sunday we hear the first words of Jesus in Mark’s account of the call of the first disciples: “This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel.” Jesus taught that the time had come for God to come and reclaim His world. What excites you about this message?

Support our local advertisers

Please show your support for your parish by also supporting our advertisers. We wouldn’t be able to bring you our bulletin every week without them. Please encourage and remind others to show their support and shop local.

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out. (Jon 3:10)

Psalm:

Teach me your ways, O Lord. (Ps 25)

Second Reading:

For the world in its present form is passing away. (1 Cor 7:31)

Gospel:

Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." (Mk 1:14-15)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The disciples were fishing when Christ found them, hard at work to support their families, casting their nets into the sea. Sometimes when God calls us, we are in the middle of something else. Don't be afraid to change your plans to follow Him.

Observances for the week of January 21, 2024
