Dear Parishioners,

Before we fully immerse ourselves in the beautiful grace of this weekend, I want to pause and express my deepest gratitude to everyone who participated in our Holy Week liturgies. Your presence, prayerful participation, and dedication made the Triduum and Easter Sunday a truly magnificent celebration of our Lord's Resurrection.

I want to share a brief personal confession with you: this year, I was able to experience the sacred liturgies of Holy Week in a much more profound and spiritual way than I have in a long time. Often, the sheer logistics of these complex liturgies can be a distraction for a priest, but this year was different. Thanks to the incredible assistance of our highly responsible older altar boys and the dedicated service of Deacon Michael, that burden was entirely lifted. Their reverence, anticipation of what was needed, and quiet competence allowed me to truly pray the liturgies alongside you, rather than just managing them. I am deeply thankful for their hard work and devotion to the altar.

This weekend, we transition from the glory of the Resurrection into the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday—a day of extraordinary, overflowing grace. Traditionally, our parish is blessed to welcome many visitors from all over the diocese for this special feast. Whether you are a longtime parishioner or a guest visiting us from a neighboring town, we are thrilled to have you here to celebrate the boundless mercy of Christ.

As part of the beautiful promises attached to this feast, the Church offers the opportunity to obtain a plenary indulgence, washing away the temporal punishment for our sins. To help you receive these abundant graces, we are offering very generous confession times this weekend. I strongly encourage you to take advantage of this opportunity. Approach the fountain of His mercy in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and experience the profound peace that only Christ can give.

Jesus, I trust in You!

God bless,

Fr. Miguel
