5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit." - Jn 12:23-24

5th Sunday of Lent
March 17, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we draw closer to the heart of Holy Week, we're reminded of the boundless love and mercy God offers us. On Wednesday, March 27th, we will have a special Penance Service at St. Aloysius from 4:30 PM to 7:30 PM. Multiple priests will be available for confession, and we'll also have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, providing a profound opportunity for reflection and spiritual renewal.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation (or Penance) is a gift. It's a chance to encounter Jesus' healing forgiveness and experience the release from the burden of sin. Especially as we prepare for Easter, this sacrament can open our hearts to fully receive the joy of the Resurrection.

The grace doesn't stop there! This year, Divine Mercy Sunday promises to be extra special. His Excellency, Bishop Hying, will be celebrating our 2 PM Mass, which will be bilingual (English/Spanish). To prepare, confessions will begin at 1 PM and continue until 5 PM.

After Mass, we'll have continued Adoration and the powerful Chaplet of Divine Mercy sung at 3 PM. Don't rush home - join us for a joyful Taco Fest to celebrate!

In the gym, you'll find framed Divine Mercy images, books, blessed scapulars, medals, and more! We'll also be hosting the incredible "Eucharistic Miracles of the World" exhibit in the school gym and hallway.

To aid in our preparations, please RSVP if you plan on attending Divine Mercy Sunday. This will help us ensure a wonderful experience for everyone. Childcare will be provided so parents can fully participate in this special day.

Let's come together, open our hearts to God's boundless mercy, and prepare for the glorious celebration of Easter!

God bless you,

Fr. Miguel

SACRAMENT OF CONFESSIONS

PREPARE YOUR HEART THIS HOLY WEEK

Fr. Miguel and 3 more Priests will offer extra time for the Sacrament of Confession, here at St. Aloysius Church:

WEDNESDAY OF HOLY WEEK

MARCH 27TH

4:30 PM - 7:30 PM

With Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Never let yourselves be deceived by the devil by keeping silent about some sin in confession out of shame. I assure you, beloved young people, that my hand trembles as I write these lines at the mere thought that a great number of Christians are eternally lost because they have not sincerely declared their sins in confession.

SEVEN SUNDAYS IN HONOR OF ST. JOSEPH

This Sunday, March 17th, just before Mass, we will pray the SEVENTH and last of the Seven Sundays Devotion to St. Joseph, celebrating the seven joys and sorrows that St. Joseph, as Head of the Holy Family, shared with the Blessed Mother. In this seventh Sunday, we honor St. Joseph's sorrow when, having lost the Child Jesus, he searched for Him with a sorrowful heart for three days; and with overwhelming joy, he found Jesus in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors. The Seven Sundays Devotion culminates this Sunday, March 17th. This year we offer the Seven Sundays Devotion for the preservation of the reign of God's Truth in our families, our Church, our Country and our world and an increase of love and devotion to God in the Blessed Sacrament.

PASSIONTIDE

Passiontide begins on the fifth Sunday of Lent. During Passiontide, statues and crosses are covered with purple or red cloths. This practice has roots in 9th century Germany. At the beginning of Lent, a cloth called a Hungertuch, or Hunger Cloth, covered the altar. During the Middle Ages, statues of saints and other images were covered at the start of Lent. Beginning in the 17th century, veiling was limited to Passiontide instead of throughout Lent.

OUR COMMUNITY AND SCHOOL

Eucharistic Miracles exhibit

We are excited to be hosting the Eucharistic Miracles of the World Vatican International exhibit over Divine Mercy Sunday Weekend. This 100+ miracle exhibit was designed and created by Blessed Carlo Acutis who died at the age of 15 from leukemia. Pope Benedict XVI shares that the exhibit will “help a person discover the mystery, the beauty and the riches of the Eucharist.”

In addition to being available for viewing after Benediction at 4 PM on Divine Mercy Sunday, it will also be available for viewing after all other Masses that weekend... the 4:30 PM on Saturday, the 8:00 AM on Sunday and the 10:30 AM on Sunday. It will start in the gym near the stage and continue up into the school hallway. Half of the exhibit will be in Hispanic and half will be in English.

The 183 panels in the exhibit contain historical descriptions, photographs and compelling scientific analysis that highlight the reality of Christ’s presence in the Eucharist. This inspiring exhibit includes the first and perhaps greatest miracle of the Eucharist occurring in Lancia-no, Italy in 750 AD.

We are grateful to offer this exhibit highlighting the reality of Christ’s presence in the Eucharist and see this as an opportunity to invite others to consider the love of God and His presence with us in the Holy Eu-charist.
