CCW MEETING MINUTES
November 13, 2022

CCW President, Roxi Maier, called the meeting to order and invited all in attendance to start with a prayer.

CCW Secretary, Juanita Wipperfurth, read the October 2, 2022 meeting minutes. Minutes were approved as read.

CCW Treasurer, Jeanne Walsh, shared the Treasurer Report. The income for October was from the Vigil Light donations. The expenses for the month were the tickets for 2 ladies to the Vicariate Meeting in Baraboo, Tickets for the Fall Harvest Breakfast, Ace Sauk Prairie for the altar flowers, a Mass for Pat Pulvermacher.

Fr. James stopped in and visited. He shared that the speaker system in Church is better, but it is still a work in progress.

Lucy Kippley and Claire Statz attend the Fall Sauk Vicariate Meeting at St. Joseph in Baraboo. Lucy shared that the speaker was very uplifting and the meeting went very well.

The Annual Fall Harvest Breakfast was Sunday, November 6, 2022. Co-chairs Rebecca Maier Frey and Roxi and Brianna Maier shared that they served 215 adults and 14 kids. A profit of $2,128.62 was reports. A special thank you to everyone who attended, all the ladies and their families who worked for the breakfast and the Dorf Haus who donated towards part of the Sysco bill.

Every year at the November MDCCW meeting a list of all ladies from the Vicariates who passed away November 1, 2021 - October 31, 2022 is read. The following deceased ladies from St. Norbert's will have their names read: Trula Mack, Eleanore Fassbender, Joan Mack, LouAnn Bonjour, and Patricia Pulvermacher.

Fr. James Anniversary of Ordination is Thursday, December 8. However due to the Holy Day and Adoration we will have a small gathering in celebration on Wednesday, December 7 in the Church Hall. Lucy and Judy Endres have graciously volunteered to host the event.

Co-chairs, Julianne Brickl and Michelle Ziegler for the Annual Wreath and Roping Sale proudly shared a profit of $1,338.78. The Wreaths and roping will be delivered the end of November. Thank you to all the ladies in the group who sold items and everyone that purchased one.

The Annual Baby Shower will conducted until December 25. All donations will be taken to the Women's Care Center in Madison. Juanita has contacted them to get a list of the items they need most. She will put in the bulletin once she receives it. She will also take care of putting up the crib in the Church Hall. Jeanne graciously offered to deliver donations again.

Roxi introduced our new CCW Vice President, Heidi Breunig. Thank you Heidi for volunteering for the position.

A discussion was had concerning about what the donation for Christmas flowers should be. A reminder was made that we only put out a certain number of poinsettias and Christmas flowers each year. Any money left over from the donations is then used to fund the flowers at the altars the rest of the year. Since the cost at Ace Hardware is not changing; it was decided to keep the flower donation amount the same for Christmas 2022. The discussion concerning flowers then became about how much was spent each week on the altar flowers and how we can help raise money to continue to honor Our Lord, the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph with flowers on their altars. Since Advent is the weekend of November 26 and 27 the discussion was tabled until the next meeting.

Copies of the November Connecting Catholic Women newsletter from Linda Ripp the President of the MDCCW was shared with all in attendance. Copies are available on a table by the main entrance.

The Christmas Tree and Nativity Scene in the Church Hall will be set up Sunday November 27 after the 8:00am Mass. Juanita shared a list of those most needing a Christmas Card from the CCW and those that do so much to help the CCW with the group. The list was confirmed with Fr. James. If anyone has someone that should be on the list they are asked to please contact Juanita. Cards, masses and gift cards will be sent after the December meeting.

The next CCW meeting will be Sunday, December 11 after the 8:00am Mass.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted by Juanita Wipperfurth, CCW Secretary
